PROFILE

I am an Emmy Nominated anchor and reporter from Dallas, Texas. I have a passion for storytelling and a commitment to delivering impactful news. Stories I've covered garnered national attention, such as the death of Tyre Nichols who was beaten by Memphis Police officers in 2023. My work in Oklahoma and Nebraska led me to cover natural disasters like the historic flooding in the Omaha area, and deadly tornadoes in Southern Oklahoma. I've also covered the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, as one of the first cruise ships of infected people were brought to Omaha to quarantine.
